See new advertisements in to-day's DEMOCRAT. The Court advertisements as well as other local advertising are of no little in ortance to our readers. That is just the kind of matter everybody should read, to know what is going on in the world.

There will be public sale of a valuable FARM situate in Hemlock Township, two miles north of Buckhorn, containing SEVENTY-THREE ACRES, on Saturday the 17th day of August 1867, on the premises

Their services were highly appreciated, and many were the encomiums passed upon them for their excellent music.

BE Mr. REEDER informs us that he did not "withhold his vote upon the first trial" for Commissioner, as was erroneously reported by the "active" Secretary of the Convention. Men have voted for themselves before, and Mr. R. was not the only person who did that same thing in the the very Convention of which we speak. Isn't that so, Mr. Secretary?

In our next, or in some future number of our paper, it is our intention to publish an article explaining to the Democracy of this County and elsewhere, how certain dishonest and ignorant politicians have misrepresented a large number of Democrats in this County, together with our press, relative to their course towards Senator Buck-ALEW. They have attempted by false representations to ride into power on the back of this distinguished gentleman, by dragging his name into the campaign unjustly and without the least shadow of a cause. At the proper time, and that time has about arrived, we intend ventilating the whole party who have so mischievously struggled to give certain men place and power by introducing false issues.

M A Grand Harvest Flome Jubilee for the benefit of the Bloomsburg Reformed Church, will be held in Mr. Snyder's Grove, near Bloomsburg, Thursday August twenty second. Prominent Speakers are invited to deliver suitable addresses. The exercises will be varied with sweet music. The occasion offers a pleasant, social and profitable citertainment after the ingathering of an abundant harvest. Dinner and Supper will be handsomely served up on the grounds by the ladies. All necessary refreshments will be amply provided. A cordial invitation is extended to the Churches and citizens generally of Columis and adjoining counties, to come and cipate is our Harvest Home Jubilee. ble, the meeting will take place the ir day after. Exercises commence at Charles of Care

Columbia County farmers are all busily engaged at the present time taking off their oats crop. The yield will be more, from present appearance, than an average one. -This is encouraging to our farmers as well as other people.

From the large crowd that daily visit the New York Store at this place we should think that J. J. Robbins sold the best and cheapest dry goods in town. Madame Rumor says he does, and she is not often mistaken.

The handsome vote which Mr. Billmoyer received at the late Delegate election was entirely owing to his own "personal popularity." What might have been the result if he could have appropriated the "personal popularity" of other people, is not known. He marched at the head of his own column, and at the sound of his bugle his clausmen fell in, without the prick of sword from licutenant, or the mercenary inducement of "bounty."

BB- A Pic Nie was held, one day last week, in Snyder's Grove, by the Lutheran Sunday School Scholars. They formed in procession at their Church, on Market Street, and marched to the Grove, accompanied by the Lutheran Minister, Superin tendent, Teachers of the School, and others. They had a fine time, and all returned in the after part of the day much pleased with their enjoyment.

We would again call attention to Henry Zuppinger's establishment; he is a reliable gentleman, and on watches, clocks, Jewelry &c., one of the most skillful workmen that can be found either in City or Country. The best selection of spectacles, and the secret how to get a suitable pair, will be found with him.

LOST POCKET BOOK .-- Col. LEYI L. TATE, Editor of the Williamsport Standurd, lost his Portmonia, on Saturday evening, the 27th ult., as he believes, on the steps of the Court House, in Bloomsburg. It contained about $13.00 in currency, $5.00 in gold, several notes, receipts, and Rail Road passes. We are authorized to say, that we will pay the finder $5.00 in addition The Republican of last week says, to the $5.00 reward offered by Mr. Tate by that Mr. Buckalew remarked of a certain hand-bill, making $10.00 for the return of prominent individual in the Convention that | the said Portmonia and its contents, either he was "making a d-d ass of himself." - to the Editor of this paper, or to Mr. Jumes All we have to say is that nature did this for M.
